- c. $ _____ per month for the period commencing _____ and ending _____.
- d. or see attached schedule (if applicable).

Security Deposit

Section 2.02. Concurrently with Tenant's execution of this lease, Tenant shall deposit with Landlord the sum of $ _____. Said sum shall be held by Landlord as a Security Deposit for the faithful performance by Tenant of all of the terms, covenants, and conditions of this lease to be kept and performed by Tenant during the term hereof. If Tenant defaults with respect to any provision of this lease, including but not limited to the provisions relating to the payment of rent and any of the monetary sums due herewith, Tenant may (but shall not be required to) use, apply or retain all or part of this Security Deposit for the payment of any other amount which Landlord may spend by reason of Tenant's default. If any portion of said Deposit is so used or applied, Tenant shall, within ten (10) days after written demand therefore, deposit cash with Landlord in an amount sufficient to restore the Security Deposit to its original amount; Tenant's failure to do so shall be material breach of this lease. Landlord shall not be required to keep this Security Deposit separate from its general funds, and Tenant shall not be entitled to interest on such deposit. If Tenant shall fully and faithfully perform every provision of this lease to be performed by it, the Security Deposit or any balance thereof shall be returned to Tenant (or, at Landlord's option, to the last assignee of Tenant's interest hereunder) at the expiration of the lease term and after Tenant has vacated the premises. Such costs include but are not limited to, processing and accounting charges, personnel costs, and late charges which may be imposed on Landlord by the terms of any mortgage or trust deed covering the Premises. Accordingly, if any installment of Minimum Rent or any other sum due from Tenant shall not be received by Landlord when due, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a late charge equal to five percent (5%) of such overdue amount. The parties hereby agree that such late charge represents a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs Landlord will incur by reason of late payment by Tenant. Acceptance of such late charge by Landlord shall in no event constitute a waiver of Tenant's default with respect to such overdue amount, nor prevent Landlord from exercising any of the other rights and remedies granted hereunder. In the event that a late charge is payable hereunder, whether or not collected, for two (2) installments of Minimum Rent in any twelve (12) month period, then the Minimum Rent and/or all other charges hereunder shall, at Landlord's election by written notice to Tenant, become due and payable quarterly in advance, rather than monthly, notwithstanding any other provision of this lease to the contrary.

No Partnership of Joint Venture

Section 2.04. Nothing in this lease shall be construed to render Landlord in any way or for any purpose a partner, joint venturer, or associate in any relationship with Tenant other than that of Landlord and Tenant, nor shall this lease be construed to authorize either to act as agent for the other.

Tenant agrees to pay, before delinquency, any and all taxes levied or assessed and which become payable during the term hereof upon Tenant's equipment, furniture, fixtures and other personal property located in the Premises. For the purpose of determining said amount, figures supplied by the County Assessor as to the amount so assessed shall be conclusive. In such event this lease shall continue in full force and effect, except that Tenant shall be entitled to proportionate reduction of rent while such restoration takes place, such proportionate reduction to be based upon the extent to which the restoration efforts interfere with Tenant's business in the Premises.

Partial Damage – Uninsured

Section 6.02. In the event the Premises or the Building are damaged by a risk not covered by Landlord's insurance or the proceeds of available insurance are less than eighty percent (80%) of the cost of restoration, or if the restoration cannot be completed within sixty (60) days after the commencement of work in the opinion of the registered architect or engineer appointed by Landlord, then Landlord shall have the option either to (1) repair or restore such damage, this lease continuing in full force and effect, but the rent to be proportionately abated as hereinabove provided or (2) give notice to Tenant at any time within thirty (30) days after such damage terminating this lease as of a date to be specified in such notice, which date shall be not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days after giving such notice. In the event of the giving of such notice, this lease shall expire and all interest of Tenant in the Premises shall terminate on such date so specified in such notice and the rent, reduced by any proportionate reduction based

Additionally, such "all

The policy shall include cross liability endorsements.

All insurance required to be provided shall be carried with insurance companies having the rating of A or better in Best’s Insurance Guide. Tenant may satisfy any of its insurance obligations, under a blanket policy so long as such blanket policy provides the coverage required hereunder and names Landlord as an additional insured as required pursuant hereto. If an independent insurance expert or Landlord determines that the $1,000,000.00 liability limit no longer provides adequate protection according to prevailing practice, Tenant will be required to increase the $1,000,000.00 liability insurance to an adequate level.

Tenant shall supply to Landlord annually a copy of the above described policies upon receipt of a written request therefore and shall provide Landlord with evidence of renewal or replacement thereof at least twenty (20) days prior to expiration of such policies. In no event shall Tenant open for business in the Premises unless and until copies of such policies have been provided to Landlord. In the event Tenant fails to provide such coverage, Landlord may provide such insurance and Tenant shall bear the cost thereof, together with interest from the date of the expenditure until paid. Such sums shall be paid within ten (10) days of receipt of a bill therefore. All such policies shall provide that Landlord shall receive written notice not less than ten (10) days prior to the expiration or intended cancellation of the policy.

Additionally, Tenant shall carry Workers’ Compensation Insurance as required by law.

During the term of the lease and any extension thereof, the proceeds from the policy of insurance covering the Premises shall be used for the proper repair or replacement of any of the property insured, except that if the property is destroyed during the last three (3) years of the term of the lease, the improvements need not be repaired or replaced and the lease shall terminate. In the event this lease is terminated as a result of damage or destruction, all insurance proceeds pertaining to the Premises, including the improvements shall be paid to Landlord until Landlord has received one hundred (100%) percent of the replacement cost thereof and Tenant shall demolish and remove the remainder of improvements upon written request by Landlord to Tenant; thereafter all insurance proceeds relating (1) to furniture, fixtures and equipment, and (2) to costs of demolition of and removal of improvements (if Landlord requests Tenant to do so), shall be paid to Tenant.

Tenant, on behalf of its insurance companies insuring the Premises, its contents, Tenant's other property, or other improvements, waives any right of subrogation that such insurer or insurers may have against any of the parties hereto to the extent of available proceeds. The foregoing waivers of subrogation shall be operative only so long as available in the State of California and provided they do not invalidate any such policy.

ARTICLE 9 CONDEMNATION

Definitions

Section 9.01.

- a. For the purposes of this lease, "eminent domain" means the right of the people or government to take private property for public use. As used in this article, the words "condemned" and "condemnation" are coextensive with that right, and a voluntary conveyance by Landlord to the condemnor under threat of a taking under the power of eminent domain in lieu or after commencement of formal proceedings shall be deemed a taking within the meaning of this article.

- b. As used in this article, the terms "total condemnation" and "total taking" mean the taking of the entire leased premises under the power of eminent domain.

- c. As used in this article, the terms "partial condemnation" and "partial taking" mean any condemnation of the leased premises other than a total taking as defined in subsection (b) of this section.

Condemnation

Section 9.02. If all or any part of the Premises shall be taken or appropriated for public or quasi-public use by right of eminent domain with or without litigation or transferred by agreement in connection with such public or quasi-public use, either party hereto shall have the right at its option exercisable within thirty (30) days of receipt of notice of such taking to terminate this lease as of the date possession is taken by the condemning authority, provided, however, that before Tenant may terminate this lease by reason of taking or appropriation as provided hereinabove, such taking or appropriation shall be of such an extent and nature as to substantially handicap, impede or impair Tenant's use of the Premises. If any part of the Building other than the Premises shall be so taken or appropriated, Landlord shall have the right at its option to terminate this lease. No award for any partial or entire taking shall be apportioned, and Tenant hereby assigns to Landlord any award which may be made in such taking or condemnation, together with any and all rights of Tenant now or hereafter arising in or to the same or any part thereof; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to give Landlord any interest in or to require Tenant to assign to Landlord any award made to Tenant for the taking of personal property and fixtures belonging to Tenant and/or for the interruption of or damage to Tenant's business and/or for Tenant's unamortized cost of leasehold improvements. In the event of a partial taking which does not result in a termination of this lease, rent shall be abated in the proportion which the part of the premises so made unusable bears to the rented area of the Premises immediately prior to the taking. No temporary taking of the Premises and/or of Tenant's rights therein or under this lease shall terminate this lease or give Tenant any right to any abatement of rent thereunder; any award made to Tenant by reason of any such temporary taking shall belong entirely to Tenant and Landlord shall not be entitled to share therein.

ARTICLE 10 ASSIGNMENT

Assignment and Subletting

Section 10.01. Tenant shall not voluntarily assign its interest in this lease or in the Premises, or sublease all or any part of the Premises, or allow any other person or entity (except Tenant's authorized representatives) to occupy or use all or any part of the Premises, without first obtaining Landlord's prior written consent, which consent will not unreasonably be withheld. Tenant shall, in each instance of a proposed assignment or subletting, give written notice of its intention to assign or sublet to Landlord at least thirty (30) days or more before the effective date of any such notice of any such proposed assignment or subletting, specifying in such notice whether Tenant proposes to assign or sublet, the proposed date thereof, and specifically identifying the proposed assignee or subtenant, and such notice shall be accompanied by copies of the proposed assignment document or sublease, current financial statements of the proposed assignee or subtenant certified as to accuracy by the proposed assignee or subtenant and guarantor (if any), and detailed documentation relating to the business experience of the proposed assignee or subtenant. Any assignment, encumbrance, or sublease without Landlord's prior written consent shall be voidable, and at Landlord's election, shall constitute a default. No consent to any one assignment or sublease shall constitute a waiver of the provisions of this Section.

ARTICLE 11
ABANDONMENT

Abandonment

Section 11.01. Tenant shall not vacate or abandon the Premises at any time during the term nor permit the Premises to remain unoccupied for a period longer than ten (10) consecutive days during the term without Landlord's prior written consent.

ARTICLE 12

Acts of Default

Section 12.01. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a material breach and default of this lease by Tenant:

- a. vacation or abandonment of the Premises, except as permitted by Section 11.01, for ten (10) consecutive days or more shall conclusively be deemed an abandonment or vacation of the Premises;
- b. failure to pay any installment of Rent or any other sum due on the date when such payment is due, with such failure continuing for a period of three (3) days after written notice of such delinquency;
- c. assignment or subletting in violation of the provisions of Article 10;
- d. failure by Tenant to perform any other covenants, agreements or obligations required of Tenant under this lease with such a failure continuing for twenty (20) days after written notice of such failure; provided, however, if the nature of the failure is such that it cannot with the exercise of reasonable diligence be cured within said twenty (20) day period, then Tenant shall not be in default hereunder if it shall promptly commence such cure (in any event within said twenty (20) day period) and thereafter pursue the same to completion with diligence and continuity;
- d. a general assignment by Tenant for the benefit of creditors;
- f. the filing of a voluntary petition in bankruptcy by Tenant or the filing of an involuntary petition by Tenant's creditors, with such a petition remaining undischarged for a period of sixty (60) days;
- g. the appointment of a receiver to take possession of substantially all of Tenant's assets or of the Premises, with such a receivership remaining undissolved for a period of sixty (60) days;

h. the attachment, execution or other judicial seizure of substantially all of Tenant's assets or the Premises, which such attachment, execution or other seizure remaining undismissed or undischarged for a period of sixty (60) days after the levy thereof;

i. the chronic delinquency by Tenant in the payment of Rent or any other sum due hereunder. "Chronic delinquency" shall mean the failure by Tenant to pay any Rent or other sums due hereunder, by the required due date on three (3) or more occasions during any twelve (12) month period;

The notices required under this Section are the only notices required to be given by Landlord to Tenant in the event of Tenant's default and are not in addition to any statutory notices otherwise required by the unlawful detainer statutes of California.

Termination of Lease and Remedies

Section 12.02. In the event of any default by Tenant, then, in addition to any and all other rights and remedies available to Landlord at law or in equity, Landlord shall have the right to immediately terminate this lease and all rights of Tenant hereunder by giving written notice to Tenant of such election by Landlord. If Landlord shall elect to terminate this lease, then it may recover the following from Tenant:

(i) the worth at the time of the award of any unpaid Rent which had been earned at the time of termination; (ii) the worth at the time of the award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent (which would have been earned after termination until the time of the award) exceeds the amount of the loss of such Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; (iii) the worth at the time of the award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent (for the balance of the term after the time of the award) exceeds the amount of the loss of such Rent that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; (iv) any other amount necessary to compensate Landlord for the detriment proximately caused by Tenant's default or which in the ordinary course of things would be likely to result therefrom; and (v) at Landlord's election, such other amount in addition to or in lieu of the foregoing as may be permitted from time to time by applicable California law.

Right of Re-Entry

Section 12.03. In the event any default by Tenant, Landlord shall also have the right, with or without terminating this lease, to re-enter the Premises and remove all property, and persons therefrom, and any such property may be removed and stored in a public warehouse or elsewhere at the cost and for the account of Tenant.

Lease Not Terminated

Section 12.04. If Landlord does not elect to terminate this lease, Landlord may either recover all Rent as it becomes due or relet the Premises or any part or parts thereof for such term or terms and upon such provisions as Landlord, in its sole judgment, may deem advisable, and Landlord shall have the right to make repairs to and alterations of the Premises. No re-entry or taking possession of the Premises by Landlord under this Section shall be construed as an election to terminate this lease unless a written notice of such termination be given to Tenant or unless the termination thereof be adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Election to Rent

Section 12.05. If Landlord shall elect to relet the Premises, then rentals received by Landlord from such reletting shall be applied as follows:

- a. to the payment of any indebtedness other than Rent due hereunder from Tenant;
- b. to the payment of all costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in connection with such reletting;
- c. to the payment of the costs of any alterations or any repairs to the Premises;
- d. to the payment of Rent due and unpaid hereunder, the residue, if any, shall be held by Landlord and applied in payment of future Rent as the same may become due and payable hereunder. In no event shall Tenant be entitled to any excess Rent received by Landlord over and above that which Tenant is obligated to pay hereunder. Should that portion of such Rent received from such reletting during any months which is applied to the payment of Rent hereunder be less than Rent payable hereunder during that month by Tenant, then Tenant shall pay such deficiency to Landlord immediately upon demand, and such deficiency shall be calculated and paid monthly. Tenant shall also pay Landlord as soon as ascertained and upon demand, all costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in connections with such reletting and in making any such alterations and repairs which are not covered in the Rent received from such reletting. Notwithstanding any reletting without termination by Landlord because of Tenant's default, Landlord may at any time after such reletting elect to terminate this lease because of such default.

Landlord's Right to Cure Tenant's Defaults

Section 12.06. Landlord may, at any time after Tenant commits an act of default, upon ten (10) days notice or a shorter period if additional damage may result, cure the act of default for the account and at the expense of Tenant. If Landlord at any time, by reason of an act of default, is compelled to pay, or elects to pay, any money, or is compelled to incur any expense, including reasonable attorneys' fees in instituting, prosecuting or defending any actions or proceedings to enforce Landlord's rights under this lease, the sum or sums paid by Landlord (together with interest accruing until paid) and the attendant costs and damages shall be deemed to be additional Rent under this lease and shall be due from Tenant to Landlord immediately upon receipt of written demand.

Non-waiver

Section 12.07. Nothing contained in this Article shall constitute a waiver of Landlord's right to recover damages by reason of Landlord's efforts to mitigate damages to it caused by Tenant's default; nor shall anything in this Article adversely affect Landlord's rights, as provided in this lease, to indemnification against liability for damage to persons or property occurring prior to a termination of this lease. In any case where Landlord has a cause of action for damages, Landlord shall have the privilege of splitting its cause so as to permit the institution of a separate suit for the Rent and neither institution of any such suit, nor the subsequent entering of judgment, shall bar Landlord from bringing another suit for other sums due hereunder; it being the express purpose of this provision to provide that the forbearance on the part of Landlord in any suit or entry of judgment for any part of the Rent reserved under this lease, to sue for, or to include in any such suit and judgment the aforesaid expenses, shall not serve as defense against, nor prejudice a subsequent action to recover such sums. Tenant waives any right to claim a merger of such a suit for expenses with any previous suit or judgment entered. The claims for Rent and those for the expenses may be regarded by Landlord, if it so elects, as separate claims capable of being assigned separately.

Landlord shall be under no obligation to observe or perform any covenant of this lease on its part to be observed or performed that cures after the date of any default by Tenant hereunder.

The remedies given to Landlord in this Article shall be in addition and supplemental to all other rights or remedies that Landlord may have under the laws then in force.

ARTICLE 13 SURRENDER

Surrender of Lease

Section 13.01. The voluntary or other surrender of this lease by Tenant, or a mutual cancellation thereof, shall not work as a merger, and shall at the option of Landlord, terminate all or any existing subleases or subtenancies, or may, at the option of Landlord, operate as an assignment to Landlord of any or all such subleases or subtenancies. Tenant shall remain liable for all delays in delivering the Premises at the expiration of the term resulting from Tenant's holdover from failure to deliver the Premises in the condition required pursuant hereto.

ARTICLE 14 WAIVER

Waiver

Section 14.01. The waiver of Landlord of any breach of any lease provision shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such lease provision or any subsequent breach of the same or any other term, covenant or condition therein contained. The subsequent acceptance of Rent hereunder by Landlord shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any preceding breach by Tenant or any provision of this lease, other than the failure of Tenant to pay the particular Rent so accepted, regardless of Landlord's knowledge of such preceding breach at the time of acceptance of such rent.

ARTICLE 15 SURRENDER OF PREMISES

Prevailing Party Entitled to Attorneys' Fees

Section 16.02. Any judgment or order entered in any final judgment shall contain a specific provision providing for the recovery of all costs and expenses of suit, including actual reasonable attorneys' fees (collectively "Costs") incurred in enforcing, perfection, and executing such judgment. For the purposes of this section 16.02 costs shall include, without limitation, attorneys' fees, costs and expenses incurred in the following: (i) post-judgment motions; (ii) contempt proceeding; (iii) garnishment, levy, and debtor and third party examination; (iv) discovery; (v) appeal; and (vi) bankruptcy litigation.
